TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

NICOLE ENGELS has worked in this law offices during her last summer (Northern hemisphere) vacations. This is a boutique law firm, dedicated exclusively to the criminal law practice, focused mainly in white collar crimes.

She worked as a trainee with an excellent performance in checking the status of cases in first degree and appellate Courts, doing research of precedents and quotations from textbooks, and helping to keep the office records updated.

NICOLE has got an extraordinary charisma. In only two months working here she is loved by everybody (I mean everybody!) in the offices, from the doorman to the cleaning team, to paralegals, trainees and all the lawyers. In spite of being so young and getting in touch to this kind of professional activity for the first time in her life, she exerts a natural leadership, as consequence of her charisma.

Cute, gentle, polite, always willing to help, she is that special kind of person that everybody loves. I am very happy to state that the doors of this firm are open to her, whenever she wants to get back.

São Paulo, May 2nd, 2014.
